Hello!

We're Ubbergloves (pronounced like rubber gloves, but without the 'r')... Quirky eh?! 🤪

We are Leicester's fastest growing professional cleaning contractors. We offer a vast range of cleaning services throughout the East Midlands and nationwide.

Ubbergloves was founded by Brandon Watson, an entrepreneur brought up around generations of cleaners. From a young age Brandon saw family members working hard within the cleaning industry and with his entrepreneurial flare, he realised that the cleaning industry required innovation and positive changes, to benefit both the customer and the cleaner.

Cleaners, Customers, Company, Community. We believe that having a happy, competent workforce, will create returning customers. A loyal customer base will allow us to excel our business, meaning we can give back to the community.

We're here to do more than just clean. We want to start a cleaning revolution.
